Allele, Lies

So much for, your fake innocence Was this all for me All alone, on my own Caught up in your lies What if they knew it was you Caught up in disguise After all I've done for you Wait and see how it's gunna be Caught up in your lies So cynical, so many faces Inside I wonder, just how you made it All alone, on my own Caught up in your lies What if they knew it was you Caught up in disquise After all I've done for you Wait and see how it's gunna be Caught up in your lies Because of you Because of you that I'm here In this place alone with no one to be Completely because of you Your lies [x3] Caught up in your lies What if they knew it was you Caught up in disquise After all I've done for you Wait and see how it's gunna be Caught up in your lies In your lies I'm caught up I'm caught up I'm caught up in the lies Will we ever find the truth?
