

Allie Moss, Magnified Times Twenty

Im heaping compliments on you
But you turn them away
Why cant you believe me when I say
Youre lovely, youre lovely?
I dont need a list of
Every flaw you think of
It wont change my mind
Magnified times twenty
We can all find plenty
Of blemishes and lines
Your sighs are a dead giveaway
That you punish yourself
And you dont believe me when I say
Youre normal, youre normal
You dont need a list of
Every thought you think of
Each murderous sin
Magnified times twenty
We can all find plenty
Of darkness within
Maybe today will be new?
I dont need a list of
Every flaw you think of
It wont change my mind
Magnified times twenty
We can all find plenty
Of blemishes and lines
Maybe today will be new?
Maybe today will be new?
