

Allison Crowe, Angels

Words & Music by Allison Crowe

It took the edge off at least that's what I thought at the time but my mouth was open and these words kept pouring out and now my head is empty and I wish it was just empty threatening but all my angels seem to disappear and leave me lonely singing It's been so long since I've felt not a victim of repression so maybe I overdo
but take who this is or let me be 'cause all the angels in the world couldn't hold a candle to me and no one will ever love you like I do my fire is inside
and the door is open so let it slide and I'll just be who I am and you just be a man and I'll still love you anyways My heart is broken most of the time so don't let that bother you and I learned to fight last time so I know how to do what I have to do though I am painfully fragile I'll do my best not to let anyone see and deathly cold sometimes it's easier to shut off than feel anything it's been so long since I've felt
not a victim of repression
so maybe I overdo
but take who this is or let me be
'cause all the angels in the world
and I'll still love you anyways
Even though you're a man I'll love you anyways
Even when I don't understand
