

Allison Iraheta, Trouble Is

I could slip so easily into you

If I let myself go

I could let a wildest dream come true

You never know

How it's gonna wind up in the end

Will we be lovers or not even friends?

Trouble is, I like the taste too much and I can't think straight

People change and will you still be here after today?

Trouble is, I feel like I could win or lose it all

I don't know which way to fall

Don't forget the promises that we made

And I've got all the pain

We'd be back together once again

And we would stay the same

Sometimes I think love can last

But sometimes I think forever is a thing of the past

Trouble is, I like the taste too much and I can't think straight

People change and will you still be here after today?

Trouble is, I feel like I could win or lose it all

I don't know which way to fall

Na, na, na, na, na, na, na

Na, na, na, na, na, na, na

Na, na, na, na, na, na, na

Na, na, na, na, na, na, na

Everything's so temporary

Hold too tight and things just slip away

And then you hold me, I'm in place

Trouble is, I like the taste too much and I can't think straight

People change and will you still be here after today?

Trouble is, I feel like I could win or lose it all

I don't know which way to fall

I don't know which way to fall
