

Allison Moorer, No Next Time

(Allison Moorer/Doyle Primm)

You've finally gone and done it
Broke it right in two
There's no way you can fix it
So pocket your excuse
Don't tell me that you're sorry
That'll only make it worse
I'm tired of your story
I know it word for word
I make no bones about it
Stupid is as stupid does
I had to learn the hard way
You're a man that I can't trust
If only I'd known sooner
I was gonna be betrayed
I would've left the first time
I ever heard you say
I didn't mean to break your heart
I apologize
If you'll just give me
One more chance
There'll be no next time
I promise I will never break your heart
Again
Again
Again
Right now it's a-hurtin'
But it'll be okay
I'll pick up both the pieces
And be on my way
You know that I love you
Yeah, that's been my mistake
So before I go, let's hear it
Once more for old time's sake
I didn't mean to break your heart
I apologize
If you'll just give me
One more chance
There'll be no next time
I promise I will never break your heart
Again
Again
Again
