

Allison Moorer, Tell Me Baby

(Walter Hyatt)

Tell me, baby

How long I'm gonna cry

How long I'm gonna sigh for you

Tell me, baby

Do you remember the promises you made me

Rolling down the road, with the sky so blue

I'm grieving for you

Oh, I miss you so

Believe me, darling

Oh, you just don't know

I need you and I want you so

Tell me, baby

What are you gonna do

Someday you'll want me, too, I know

When you want me

You better hope that I don't leave you lonely

Rolling down the road, with no place to go

I'm grieving for you

Oh, I miss you so

Believe me, darling

Oh, you just don't know

I need you and I want you so

Tell me, baby

How long I'm gonna cry

How long I'm gonna sigh for you

Tell me, baby

Do you remember the promises you made me

Rolling down the road, with the sky so blue

Rolling down the road, with the sky so blue
