Tell Me Something: The Songs Of Mose Allison

Look Here

Look here, what you think you gon' be doin' next year

No lie, how you know you not gon' up and die

No doubt, soon enough your friends will find you out

Take care you know you might not have much time to spare

I say, how long have you acted up this way

What know, when you gonna get your own floor show

I'm hip, you could use a button on your lip

Look here, what you think you gon' be doin' next year
