

Allister, Freshman Girl

never cared if i was acting dumb never made me wanna hide and run always took the time to ask wuts wrong never made fun of my favorite song

now i gotta be the one to leave guess its better but i still dont see aint it funny how it never turns our rite but i will never cry i will never cry i will never cry for my freshman girl i will never cry i will never cry i will never cry for my freshman girl
GO

now shes crazier than John Dupot drinking alcohol and smoking pot wants to kno if it was day or nite so i asked if she feels alrite
aint it funny how it never turns out rite

never cared about us acting dumb
never made me wanna hide and run never took the time to ask wuts wrong never made fun of my favorite song
i, i dont have
