Jacob

jacob sits outside the door and runs into the class when i sit down he takes a seat right next to me i never thought about it until now and even if a boy likes me it's not the end of the world he may be a really nice guy but i only like girls
on the computer i got a letter jacob says he wants to know me better a little flattering
but way too strange
that jacob thinks i'm gay jacob walks right up to me before i get a foot out of the door he takes a second look at me i guess he wanted just a little more
and even if a boy likes me
a little flattering
Na Na Na Na Na... and even if a boy likes me
he may be a really nice guy
a little flattering
