All of my friends are drunks
All of my friends are drunks
We go drinking every night
Looking to get in a fight
Cause all of my friends are drunks

Yeah thank you

Guess that's a wrap

I kept laughing because I was thinking it did sound like you were saying
"none of my friends are drugs"
But then it said "all my friends are drunks" that's not funny at all
I don't understand

None of my friends are punks
None of my friends are punks
They all work at corporate jobs
While I sit here like a slob
Yeah none of my friends are punks

None of my friends are punks
None of my friends are punks

'cause they got converse upper class
While I sit here on my ass
Yeah none of my friends are punks

All of my friends are drunks
All of my friends are drunks
We go drinking every night
Looking to get in a fight
Cause all of my friends are drunks

All of my friends are drunks
All of my friends are drunks
'cause they like to hum along
While I sing these shitty songs
cause all of my friends are drunks
