

Allister, We Close Our Eyes

We close our eyes and the world has turned around again
We close our eyes and dream
Another year has come and gone
When everybody is running in the big race
And having a good time
We might've cast a shadow
Who am I?
I looked, how thin the face last night
I saw him in a mirror and he simply smiled
He told me not to worry
He told me just to take my time

We close our eyes and the world has turned around again
We close our eyes and dream
Another year has come and gone
We close our eyes and the world has turned around again
We close our eyes and dream

And if you come to me
And if you touch my hand
I might just slip away
I might just disappear
Who am I?
And if you think I'm worth it
And if you think it's not too late
We might start falling
If we don't try too hard
We might start falling in love

We close our eyes and the world has turned around again
We close our eyes and dream
Another year has come and gone
We close our eyes and the world has turned around again
We close our eyes and dream

We're on the healing path
We're on a roller coaster ride that could never turn back
And if you love me
And if you really try to make the seconds count
Then we could close our eyes
Close our eyes
And the world has turned around again
Close our eyes
Another year has come and gone

We close our eyes and the world has turned around again
We close our eyes and dream
Another year has come and gone
We close our eyes and the world has turned around again
We close our eyes and dream

Close our eyes and the world has turned around again
