

Allred, Ordinary Day

Today was no ordinary day,
It's been a year now since you had gone away,
And you ya always find somebody new
So there's no good reason to find the words to say Cause I'm still here, I'm still here..
Cause you.. were the only one
Who made me feel, who made me come undone
Today...was no ordinary day
I found a photograph
I sore I'd thrown away
Of you.. lying in my arms
And I can see your face now i'm wonderin where you are cause i'm still here..yeah i'm still here
cause you.. were the only one
Who made me feel, who made me come undone
You broke my heart, but you healed my soul
And I learned in love that expectations fall
And all good things come to an end they say..
Yeah... I still think that our time came too soon
Cause you... were the only one
Who made me feel, who made me come undone
And you broke my heart, but you healed my soul
And I learned in love that expectations fall.
