

Almadrava, Are we alone?

A clear cold night
I lay down on the grass.
I observe the sky
there just passed some falling stars.
The moon, my friend,
he smiles to me,
'cause he knows what we are
In this huge infinity.
Is there anybody out there?
Are we alone?
Are we alone?
Is there anybody out there?
Are we alone?
I am alone in my own univers.
My fingertips they dig
into the land,
waiting for the abyss
to get filled up with the sun.
Im scared to fall
into this emptyness.
It feels so lonely here
in our own univers
Is there anybody
Is there any being listening to what I say?
Is it that they dont want to here me,
or theyre just too far away?
