

Alone, For We Are Many

What have you done so far?
Have you worked so hard?
I'm walkin' on a thin line
I can't fail this time
I'm sending whole this message to you
(I'm sending whole this message to you)
Close your eyes
Close your eyes
Close your eyes
Shout loud your name
Ignite that flame
Shout it once again
Let's start the game
What have you heard so far?
Have you felt that gall?
There's no way to hide
I always will find you
I'm walkin' on a thin line
I can't fail this time
I'm sending whole this message to you
(I'm sending whole this message to you)
I'm walkin' on a thin line
What if I fail this time?
I'm fallin' into the dark so far
