

Alone, Hidden Dreams

Why cant I forget all my foolish fears
I can feel in the air, that something new begins
Its so warm and soft like Im sleepin on feathers
If its only a dream I wanna sleep forever.
Please dont wake me up if our kingdom falls.
Save our paradise because there just aint no more.
Leave all memories covered by the mold
Please dont wake me up before the dawn comes.
Ill take you to my world.

Now I understand why I cannot sleep at night.
Something happend and made me feel alive
And now Im so confused about our lullaby scream
I can open my eyes only in a hidden dream
Please dont wake me up if our kingdom falls
Save our paradise, because there just aint no more
Please dont wake me up, leave me on cloud nine
Save our paradise, youve never let me down.
Please dont wake me up if our kingdom falls
Save our paradise, because there just aint no more
Please dont wake me up before all stars fall down
Make me feel alive, obliterate the sun
Please dont wake me up, dont wake me up! (if cloud nine is lost)
Save our paradise. Am I demandin too much?
