

Alphaville, Ariana

Driving down the streets, listening to the radio, what do we get

Ariana

Reading the papers and the news, they scream, haven't you heard

Ariana

She rules the business, she's such a restless genuine juvenile Everyone knows, wherever she goes She got chic, she got class, she got style

Arianamaniacs rule the world,
haven't you heard

Arianamaniacs set the scenes on fire, fire

We're goin' nutz for Ariana,

We're goin' carrazy for her

Everything glows, wherever she goes

She got sex from her lips to her toes

All the Casanovas and the zombies agree

With the hummingbirds and the beasts from the seas

Ariana's a real sensation, when will she be on the screen

Arianamaniacs rule the world,
haven't you heard

Arianamaniacs set the scenes on fire, fire
