

Alphaville, Ariana

Driving down the streets, listening to the radio, what do we get

Ariana

Reading the papers and the news, they scream, haven't you heard

Ariana

She rules the business, she's such a restless genuine juvenile Everyone knows, wherever she goes She got chique, she got class, she got style

Arianamaniacs rule the world,
haven't you heard
Arianamaniacs set the scenes on fire, fire

We're goin' nutz for Ariana, We're goin' carrazy for her Everything glows, wherever she goes She got sex from her lips to her toes
All the Casanovas and the zombies agree With the hummingbirds and the beasts from the seas Ariana's a real sensation, when will she be on the screen

Arianamaniacs rule the world,
haven't you heard
Arianamaniacs set the scenes on fire, fire
