

Alphaville, Big Yellow Sun

Alphaville

Miscellaneous

Big Yellow Sun

on na round-about i'm turning on to you don't you love the way we're turning, yes you do little schools of hummingbirds are streaming by while we're merging with the color of the sky

big yellow sun

you're the one

here's our souls

heal them, heal them

beautiful girl

you're the world

i'm in you, breathing

love me do

at the entrance of the airport as you see there's an icecream-man who's selling sweets for free you might watch descending rockets from the moon while we're taking off with 99 balloons bleed our souls...

you're the one

here's our souls

heal them, heal them

you're the world
