

Alsou, He Loves Me

Lately it's so crazy, this feeling's taking over me
I'm enclacted, that's not how we used to be, you used to want me home, talked for hours on the fone never leave me alone, so where did we go wrong?
Then if he can't make up his mind, maybe I should go, coz if he loves me or loves me not it's all I need to know!

CHOURS:

He loves me, he loves me not he likes to play around but it's got to stop coz one thing that he forgot (what, what, what)
I can walk, walk away!
He loves me, he loves me not
I know that he's thinking that I'm around
but he's about to see that I'm history
if he don't make me belive that he loves me, he loves me!!

Taking for granted that I would always be around tums up, defended if there's no I'll brake down!
It's if we've got no where, if I am here he's always there
I sugest to make it clear, and prove that he really care!
it's time to realise that I can't take no more does he love or love me not it's all I need to know!

I know that he's thinking that I'm around
but he's about to see that I'm history

Does he still love me?
Does he still care?
Coz I feel lonely when he's not here...

Does he still really love me?
Does he still really care?
Coz I'll still be so lonely when he's not really here...

Does he still really love me?
Does he still really care?
Coz I'll be with him only if he'll make it clear!
