

Altaria, History Of Times To Come

Dreaming of a different light
And the people feed the fire
An experiment that failed
Created virtual royalblood
Facing the enemy
A new kind of war where the
Only ones to carry on
Are made of stone cold steel
Iron claws of terror
Penetrate our hearts
Mankind invented evil
Then set it free
History of times to come
Where's the paradise?
Guardians of night still call
From the other side
Pull the plug! You say
and the hero saves the day
When nightmares and reality
Unite and become one
A brainwashed society
Where the leaders cannot see
The visions of an alien
Until all dreams are gone
Iron claws of terror
Infiltrate our minds
Mankind brought out the evil
And now you see...
Soldiers without face invade
The temple of mankind
