

Alter Bridge, Burn It Down

Drank so much last night I think that I drown but now my cup is empty no one has seen the will around now my heart is aching Sometimes I fall asleep for days but my bed is empty
I know I'm too set in my ways Tell um all I'm okay

So burn it down
discover the dusk of your day has reached it's dawn
so burn it down
remember to find a new way to carry on flew so high last night I think I fell to the ground so heavy woke up to find this living hell it use to be so easy hard to tell my nights now from my days the curtains hide my feelings don't feel I have any right to pray and will they find me someday? someday

So burn it down
discover the dusk of your day has reached it's dawn
so burn it down
remember to find a new way to carry on (2x)

and whatever takes us away will be the same to drive us on

remember to find a new way a way to see it all its finally slipping away soon it will be gone remember to find a new day remember to carry on...

So burn it down
so burn it down
remember to find a new way to carry on (2x)
