

Altered Aeon, Desensitizer

New paradigm for humanitarian crime
A new form of life
The legions of science
Forming alliance
A forged twisted mind, born in this time
Enslaved it will find
A faceless existence, a life in resistance
No one could foresee the pain
Of creating a being born insane
An embryo of a starless sky
Not able to live, nor able to die
Fabricated anomaly, writhing endlessly
Forever it will be Considered a project
(An) unfortunate defect
Cataclysmic event but none will repent
Another step in the task to prevent
Unfortunate defects, anomalous projects
Orchestrating DNA
Reaching for perfection, gaining decay
Constructed star
Rising now
Shining scarred
Striking down
Creating this desensitizer
A progress from which none is wiser
Desensitized in formative years
Now turning to hate instead of tears
Constructed star
Rising now
Shining scarred
Striking down
New paradigm for humanitarian crime
Vengeance about to arrive
The project returning
With hatred burning
A false twisted mind, once born in time
Vengeance it will find
A soul forged in fire, desensitized
