Happy Birthday

Beckoning Strings

lying still

movement no more

until forever more

i thought you didn't remember

until the sand ran out

you're just a puppet

suspended in mid-air

dictated by those who pull your beckoning strings

lying still

until forever more

puppet

i love you puppet

pull those beckoning strings
