

Alterium, Siren's Cal

Echoes from the sea
Deeper and deeper
Through the waves, you'll hear my song
A melody enshrined in space and time
Forevermore

Enchanting notes
Amazing voice
Straight to the heart, you'll hear my song
Beautiful yet deadly, in my arms
You'll find your peace

Come to me
You've fallen from grace

Sirens' call
Hear my cry
Flowing with the winds and storms
Once you're mine, forever you will be
Sirens' call
Sail to me
Forget your home and where you are going
Far beyond the sea awaits your love

Bravest of heroes
Drawn near to me
I'll relieve your pain and tears
The song I sing soothes away your sorrows
And your sins

Voice of oceans
Sweeter than honey
You will beg for more to hear
There's no turning back, you will surrender to
My spell

Come to me
You won't tell the tale

Sirens' call
Hear my cry
Flowing with the winds and storms
Once you're mine, forever you will be
Sirens' call
Sail to me
Forget your home and where you are going
Far beyond the sea awaits your love

Sirens' call...
Once you're mine, forever be
Sirens' call
Sail to me
Forget your home and where you are going
Far beyond the sea awaits your love
