you gave me something i could believe in you gave me something i could live by you made me act up, freak out, discover the sin, i'm gonna rock until the day that i die!

i turned you up so you could blow up my speakers and in return you never turned me down you dressed me up from my head to my sneakers i'm gonna rock until the day that i drown!
'cause it's my world and they can't take it
away from me, i wont fake it
i'll rock my world til the day that i die!
a hundreth and ten percent rock!
a hundreth and ten percent rock!
a hundreth and ten percent rock
rock me til i die!
i've got your groove locked into my system,
come on and feed me with all that i need you turn me on every time that i listen to you, and never turn your back on me!

i need you by my side when i'm lonely i need you by my side when i sigh i need you to lift me up to the highest of high,
i want you to kick my ass when i cry!
'cause it's my world and they can't take it
away from me, i wont fake it
i'll rock my world til the day that i die
a hundreth and ten percent rock!
a hundreth and ten percent rock!
a hundreth and ten percent rock!
i turn you up, you turn me on!
