

Alton Ellis, Breaking Up (alternate)

When you turn and you walk through that door
It hurts me sore, said it hurts me sore
When you look at me and you say 'Good bye'
You made me cry, said you made me cry

So listen to me, what I say to you
Breaking up is hard to do
Everybody know, breaking up is hard to do

I cannot let you go now
For my love is strong
My love is so strong now
My love is so strong

So listen to me, what I say to you
Breaking up is hard to do
Breaking up is hard to do

If you've ever been in night(?)
Then you'll know just what I'm talking about
You wake up and you find your love is gone
And you realize breaking up is so hard to do

When you look at me and you say 'Good bye'
You made me cry - I said you made me cry

I cannot let you go
For my love is so strong
My love is so strong
And if you leave I will surely die

So listen to me, what I say to you
Breaking up is hard to do
Everybody know, breaking up is hard to do...
