

Aly & A.J., Out Of The Blue

When something's pure
How can people just say, we're not meant to be
And when something's true
How can people just keep me away from you
Suddenly I'm all alone
Pushed away for nothing wrong
Don't you have the guts to say how you feel about me?
Out of the blue
They said we couldn't be together
I have to get over you
We're given no choice, we have no voice
Out of the blue
Can't even call on the telephone
Don't even know if you're at home
But to control just how we feel
Between you and I, not for one to steal
Suddenly I'm all alone
Pushed away for nothing wrong
Don't you have the guts to say how you feel about me

Out of the blue
They said we couldn't be together
I have to get over you
We're given no choice, we have no voice
Just wanna hear what you've got to say
Are you feeling the same, 'cause I'm not okay
Thought when we met, there was something more
But the others say, no, they shut the door
Out of the blue
They said we couldn't be together
I have to get over you
We're given no choice, we have no voice
Out of the blue
You knew we should have been together
Don't wanna get over you
Love makes a choice, it has a voice
Out of the blue
