

Aly & AJ, Listen!!!

After long enough
My lips grows cold
I can call your bluff
Bit it just gets old

I tried to empathize
But you're so dismissive
Night after night
I express what i feared from the start

That your heart would nnever listen
I am feelin' like i am a hostage here
lit's clear something went missing
I amight be lost but i know my way out

You cant urn on a dime
Even when i am careful
I tell myslef all the time
That you're just forgetful

I tried to empathize
Still, you're so ismissive
Night after night
I express what i feared from the start

That your heart would nnever listen
I am feelin' like i am a hostage here
lit's clear something went missing
