

Aly & AJ, Out Of The Blue

When something's pure
How can people just say
We're not meant to be
And when something's true
How can people just
Keep me away from you

Suddenly I'm all alone
Pushed away from nothing wrong
Don't you have the guts to say
How you feel about me

Out of the blue
You said we couldn't be together
I have to get over you
Been givin' no choice
We have no voice
Out of the blue

I can't even call
On the telephone
Don't even know
If you're at home
But to control
Just how we feel
Between you and I
Not for one to steal

Suddenly I'm all alone
Pushed away from nothing wrong
Don't you have the guts to say
How you feel about me

Out of the blue
You said we couldn't be together
I have to get over you
Been givin' no choice
We have no voice

Just wanna hear
What you've gotta say
Are you feelin' the same
'Cause I'm not okay
I thought when we met
There was somethin' more
But the others said no
They shut the door

Out of the blue
You said we couldn't be together
I have to get over you
Been givin' no choice
We have no voice

Out of the blue
We knew we should of been together
I don't wanna get over you
Love makes a choice
It has a voice
Out of the blue
