

Alyssa Bernal, I Found You

There is always sunshine after the rain
At least thats what I hear.
But now I can believe it;
I know its true
Because now you are here
And I found you.
Dont need to look no further I know
Youre the one for me and it shows
I found you
I found you
You know how to sweep me off my feet
No ones done so much for me
I found you
I found you
I cant imagine not being around you
You know every move I make
Youre so amazing baby,
Youre my dream come true.
Because I finally found you..
Yeeaaaahhh
Dont need to look no further I know
Youre the one for me and it shows
I found you
I found you
You know how to sweep me off my feet
No ones done so much for me
I found you
I found you
I cant believe youre mine.
How can everything be so right?
I cant believe youre mine.
How can you be so so so right?
Dont need to look no further I know
Youre the one for me and it shows
I found you
I found you
You know how to sweep me off my feet
No ones done so much for me
I found you
I found you
