

Alyssa Milano, Born to love

You blew into my life on the sacred winds of time and you took control before I even knew I was lost and insecure but you mada me feel so sure now baby I'll do anything for you (chorus)

'Cause we were... born , born to love
born , born to love
born , born to lose our hearts
born , born to love

We were ships adrift at sea now I'm where I want to be in the warmth of your embrace where I belong

And my detiny is you all my dreams are coming true when I feel you close to me I feel so strong

(repeat chorus)
Like a flower blooms in spring full of all the joy you bring it's a miracle and I just can't explain Never felt this way before and everything I have is yours baby promise me you'll never go away.....
(repeat chorus)
