

Amadeus, Fake

Life goes on as the wind blows it's ways
I watch my life at window of my house
I only see
What's gone
What have been...
All of me.
Is this a lie
Is all this fake
You took my love
You took my life away
Is this a lie
Is all this fake
You took my love
You took my life away...
I realize
You're gone
So am I
A cold heart beats inside
You were a lie
And I was so fake
You took my love
You took my life away
What can I do?
What can I say?
You took my hope
You took my life away...
