

Amadeus, Far Away

Long, so long far away
I find myself
Lost in my head
Where no one else could reach
It's so hard to realize
Lost in the sea
I'm drowning in my own feelings
It's so dark and so cold, I can take it no more
But I need to live,
If I asked would you come and save me?
Guess I can't count on you no more
My life is not the same
Since you left me
And I fear the pain
That loneliness can take
But I promise to change you'll see
(Promise to change you'll see)
Lost in the sea
I'm drowning in my own feelings
It's so dark and so cold
I can take it no more
But I need to live,
If I asked would you come and save me?
Guess I can't count on you no more
