

Amadeus, Forget the Tomorrow

All begins with a glance
Quickly that becomes passion
And when you open your heart
Full of emotions, you just smile
The pain increases in me
And I, seeking problems
Be will give right? I don't know
But, what can happen?
I am exactly like that
I fell today, and I lift tomorrow
Don't worry my darling
I already supported a lot of things
All begins with a glance
Quickly that becomes passion
And when you open your heart
Full of emotions, you just smile
The pain increases in me
And I, seeking problems
Be will give right? I don't know
But, what can happen?
I am exactly like that
I fell today, and I lift tomorrow
Don't worry my darling
I already supported a lot of things
That won't drop me
I will follow my road
With you, or without You
So, kiss me now
