

Amadeus, Infinite Truth

We are living on the ashes
Of truths that were created
And destroyed later
By the darkest minds
Where're those that
Were between the moon and the sun?
Before a game involving pieces of the universe
Infinite truth on the edge of the abyss
Far away from the eyes of light
Infinite truth where is your sense?
Your extinguished road?
Infinite truth on the edge of the abyss
Far away from the eyes of light
Infinite truth where is your sense?
Your extinguished road?
We are living on the ashes
Of truths that were created
And destroyed later
By the darkest minds
Where're those that
Were between the moon and the sun?
Before a game involving pieces of the universe
Infinite truth on the edge of the abyss
Far away from the eyes of light
Infinite truth where is your sense?
Your extinguished road?
Infinite truth on the edge of the abyss
Far away from the eyes of light
Infinite truth where is your sense?
Your extinguished road?
(Where is your sense...)
Where're those that
Were between the moon and the sun?
Before a game involving pieces of the universe
Infinite truth on the edge of the abyss
Far away from the eyes of light
Infinite truth where is your sense?
Your extinguished road?
Infinite truth on the edge of the abyss
Far away from the eyes of light
Infinite truth where is your sense?
Your extinguished road?
