

Amadeus, Retaking

Wandering in the dark, no place to go
Totally lost in the time line
Someone has left me here to cry...
All alone
Now I've found you
I'll retake my life
God now it's true
I can still go on...
(I can still go on...)
Now the lights turned on
I can see the way
Nothing will stop us
We can fly away
Once I feared this all, now I'm stronger,
Nothing frightens me, I wanna live,
I won't fall down with you by my side
Now I have a dream
Nightmares are gone
I can feel the stream
Of hope in my bones
(Aaaaaa...)
Wandering in the dark, no place to go
Totally lost in the time line
Someone has left me here to cry...
All alone
My wounds, my pain
Only time will heal
I'll retake my life
This is my new deal...
(My new deal...)
