Miscellaneous
Lonely

Sweet tears of sorrow I'll be gone by tomorrow you took my love and you broke my heart then you stole my pride and you tore it apart im done playing your stupid game io just cant take anymore of this pain so now im leaving you and theres nothing you can do

Stuck in a world of nothingness and youre all alone ive tried to make you love me but love is something you have never shown

Chorus:
So now that youre lonely and you dont own me what do you have to show for yourself now that this love of mine can never be felt?
End Chorus

my friends tell me that all you do is mope around watching your tears fall slowly to the ground They hear you say its not the same and its not, since you cant play your stupid games its not that my love doesnt run strong for you its just something i had to do like the old saying goes, out with the old, and in with the new you were my biggest mistake cuz you were nothing but a fake i wish id known from the day we met that you were gonna be my biggest regret chorus x1

you never took the time to talk to me you only felt the need when you watched me leave I seem to be the one that youre missing though im not the one your kissing you said i meant everything to you but we both knew it wasnt true you arnt the person i thought you were so i guess that means youre perfect for her!

i know that its driving you crazy that i know i wasnt the only one you were calling baby but its your own fault that now im not your lady maybe it would have worked out if your world wasnt so twisted around
