

Amanda Ghost, Blind Man

This song is about music industry executives

It must be wonderful
To think you know it all
It must be beautiful
To really believe in you

Chorus

But I am constantly waiting
I'm looking for your soul
I am constantly praying
I've come looking for you, looking for you
Blind man
You do what you can

You do what you can to be superman
Blind man
I'll do what I can.
I'll do what I can
To make you believe

You must be thrilled to bits
The happy hypocrite
And when you're out of it
The whole world is with you too
