

Amanda Jenssen, Don't Worry Amanda Jenssen

I ran away but now I'm back and you might think that I am mad
The truth is you are right but I am tired of being sad My head misses your shoulder can't you feel it?
Why, oh why?
I've been bad
but now I'm older I'd be stupid not to try Don't worry
Da-da-da-darling
You will see
Da-da-da-darling
How sweet it could be
Don't worry
I cry and cry
my eyes run dry I'm lonely can't you see?
I know you could

You know you should be sleeping next to me When I need some air a touch of flair that's when I sing this song When you feel confused too much too soon That's when you sing along
Don't worry
Da-da-da-darling
You will see
Da-da-da-darling
How sweet it could be
Don't worry
I'm at your door Let me in Cause I want more
You just sigh
And tell me that I lalalalalalalalie Can't you see?
It's you and me
