

Amanda Jenssen, Rising Up

We've had our share of joy and pain
But we both get up so high just to come down again
And now, you're like a rocket disengaging Everything of yours
have gathered up When you come 'round here you won't be drinking from my cup
And I've been fast asleep but now I'm waking
It had to happen sometime
I'm rising up
I'm right over you
So fly away
Cause that's the best thing you can do Don't keep telling me
how I should feel about us
I don't feel anything baby
There was love
I can't deny but your arms can't hold on to me so keep them by your side Your eyes won't always be spilling over Yeah it had to happen sometime
I'm rising up
I'm right over you
So fly away
Cause that's the best thing you can do
Don't keep telling me
how I should feel about us
I don't feel anything baby
Maybe we could have grown What if I've made a mistake, god knows!
I'll find out without you Don't fool yourself
And all those things you thought we'd see Well you're gonna have to save them for someone, not me One day, you will move on and that will be forever, forever, forever
I'm rising up
So fly away
I don't feel anything baby x 2
