

Amanda Jenssen, Save Me For A Day

You'll find me singing at the bar with no name
Without a closing time or someone to blame
I'm still restless, growing out of my skin
And it's just me and Charlie when happy hour begins
I try but I'm still nowhere
Just one wrong turn
So listen if you still care
Before I burn
Do what you want, love
The present won't change
Drag me up above
Save me for a day
Thinking the wrong thoughts
Will I ever learn?
I know I've paid a lot for that
Save me for a day
Take the first train that I see
Before I explode
I don't care where it takes me
Just want to go
'Cause I'm so tired of what you want me to be
Go on and miss me, honey
It doesn't matter to me
I try but I'm still nowhere
That's what I've earned
So listen if you still care
Before I burn
Do what you want, love
The present won't change
Drag me up above
Save me for a day
Thinking the wrong thoughts
Will I ever learn?
I know I've paid a lot for that
Save me for a day