

Amanda Marshall, Dizzy

I like salsa with my pancakes, baby
I like to vacuum when I'm in the nude
I watch the weather channel for no reason
I like it baby, just like I like you
Sometimes the love you get is free from logic
Sometimes it happens when you least expect it (when ya least expect it)
Sometimes I wonder why the world's gone crazy
But I like never knowing what comes next

'Cause I found you
Without even trying
Or lifting a finger
And then you were here
Such a strange thing

We think
We're in control ('till we really don't)
We always know ('till we really don't)
Until we don't
Funny how the world can spin so fast (spins around)
And we don't crash (crashin' down)
We just get dizzy (a o-o-o-o-yeah)

If I could maybe I'd build a rocket
So you and I could make love on the moon
And get perspective on a world gone crazy
Get understanding about me and you

I used to pull my hair out and worry, baby
That I would die before I found true love
But then the moment that my heart stopped searchin'
A spirit brought you and the universe
Called my bluff

The best things happen
When you don't try
Or wish on an eyelash
Just open your heart
To a strange thing

We think
We're in control ('till we really don't)
We always know ('till we really don't)
Until we don't
Funny how the world can spin so fast (spins around)
And we don't crash (crashin' down)
We just get dizzy

Fasten your seatbelt
It's always a bumpy ride
Check out the scenery
Don't sweat the details don't choke on your pride
Don't fight the changing tide
Your fears are your mind
We're all just flying blind

We think
We're in control ('till we really don't)
We always know ('till we really don't)
Until we don't
Funny how the world can spin so fast (spins around)
And we don't crash (crashin' down)
We just get dizzy
We think

We're in control ('till we really don't)
We always know ('till we really don't)
Until we don't
Funny how the world can spin so fast (spins around)
And we don't crash (crashin' down)
We just get dizzy
