

Amanda Marshall, Giving Up, Giving In

I always think about you I always will I'll always wonder what might of been if we could get time, to just... stand still
Oh well.
It was the right train but I guess we must've been off track and I've been waiting for so long but now I know you're never coming back

CHORUS:

So I'm giving up, giving in
quit playing this game,
that I can't win
I wish I could stop but I don't know where to begin I wonder how you slipped away I wonder why
I always wonder if there's a chance that maybe you know what this is like... it's like a bloodstain and it's spreading across my chest and I've been bleeding for so long I think this heart of mine deserves a rest

And now the wolf is at my door and it's never gonna be like it was before and I have cried till I'm insane my head is getting cloudy, it's shrouded in this pain

And so I'm giving up,
giving in
quit playing this game
that I can't win
I wish I could stop
but I don't know how to give up--giving in quit playing this game
that I can't win
I wish I could stop
but I don't know how... to begin
gotta give up
It's never gonna be like it was before the wolf is at my door
...gotta give up...
(Repeat until fade out)
