Amanda Marshall, The Voice Inside

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)

The rules do not apply (they don't)

Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)

Listen to the voice inside

Hey - just 'cause he ain't tall (tall)

So I met him at the mall (mall)

Doesn't mean that I should write him off

It's just a circumstance

So what if he can't dance?

His heart is kind and those big hands are soft

He speaks a language that can change what I believe

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)

The rules do not apply (they don't)

Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)

To the naked eye

To the concious mind

Shouldn't be denied

Listen to the voice inside

So - my friends don't think he's cool (so what?)

He like's Coltrane, I like Tool (who's that?)

He wears leather patches on his tweed

Yeah-- but I know that he's deep (teach me)

The company I keep (whatever)

May not be the company I need

To pay attention

This is serendipity (serendipity)

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)

The rules do not apply (they don't)

Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)

To the naked eye

To the concious mind

Shouldn't be denied

Listen to the voice inside

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)

The rules do not apply (they don't)

Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)

To the naked eye

To the concious mind

Shouldn't be denied

Listen to the voice inside

Genius - he's a genius

Every big decision is a trial by fire

Wisdom acquired

Fuel my desire

Ooh baby, my heart aspires to genuis

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)

The rules do not apply (they don't)

Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)

To the naked eye

To the concious mind

Shouldn't be denied

Listen to the voice inside

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)

The rules do not apply (they don't)

Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)

To the naked eve

To the concious mind

Shouldn't be denied

Listen to the voice inside
