

Amanda Marshall, Too Little, Too Late

Tuesday night - 7:30

I hear a voice on the telephone

Doin' fine - then it hits me

The voice that I am hearing means you're not alone

I thought it would be easy but it's not

And now I would give all that I've got

CHORUS

But it's too little too late

No going back to the start

You only lose when you hesitate

And now that I would give you my heart

It's too little too late

Two more weeks - I start to wonder

If what I'm missing's really worth these tears

What's the point - you've found another

And I just keep on talking but you just can't hear

You swore you'd wait forever and a day

I never thought I'd live to hear you say

CHORUS

So mad about me

You couldn't live without me

Now you say you're moving on

I took the long way

I told you maybe someday

I guess I made you wait too long

SOLO

I know I've only got myself to blame

And I've still got my pride but just the same

It's just too little too late

No going back to the start

You only lose when you hesitate

And now I wanna give you my heart

And now you tell me

That it's too little too late

No going back to the start

You only lose when you hesitate

And now that I would give you my heart

It's too little too late

It's

too little

Too late
