

Amanda Stott, Undeniably Real

Sometimes clouds, sometimes waterfalls,
Life can be unpredictable
Sometimes "hello", sometimes "see ya 'round"
My heart spins like a merry-go-round
When I kiss the sun on your face
It feels like a moment of grace
I'm chasing the sky, I can fly like an eagle
And I can see everything clearly
My heart's spinning fast, like the wings of pleasure
Tonight I feel your love so undeniably real
I feel crazy, I feel naked 'round you
My defences are on the ground
I had my world, it was so uncomplicated
Now it's you everyday that I wanna run to
I never knew my heart had wings
I never knew my soul could fly
I'm chasing the sky, I can fly like an eagle
And I can see everything clearly
My heart's spinning fast, like the wings of pleasure
Tonight I feel your love so undeniably real
Maybe your love is my yellow brick road
I can never lose my way
My heart's spinning fast, like the wings of pleasure
Tonight I feel your love so undeniably real
I'm chasing the sky, my heart's spinning faster
