

Amatris, Broken Chains

Imprisoned in the chains of life
I see the lies again
Imprisoned in times of strife
All trouble in vain

Can you see my hope and pain?
I see the open gate
I will break my chain
I refuse this fate

Can you see the hope in my eyes?
The fight against these might
I wish to fly through the skies
Endless nightmares every night

It's time for my desire
One hand frozen in ice
The other in open fire

I broke my chains forever
But am I really free?
It's my escape into eternity
