

Amatris, Demons

Confused thoughts of a tortured soul
Confused by the demon of malice
The ally of the devil is lurking in myself
To break my last resistance

How long do I have intention to fight?
How long must I live in the twilight?

Imprisoned in the net of madness
Imprisoned by the dark might
The ally of the devil is lurking in myself
To break my last resistance

The demon calls my name
It's a merciless demand
