

Amatris, Revelation

Frightening silence looms in heaven
Misty clouds descending today
A storm brews over gloomy water
The earth is trembling tremendously

Celestial bodies now suddenly darken
The eyes of all creatures are filled with fear
Bloody rainfall soaks the ground
Waves of fire are spreading out

Angels are weeping
Darkness embraces the earth
Shadows are creeping
Signs of the dreadful curse

Burnt soil, crestfallen trees
The last life fades away
The scorching abyss devours the souls
The veil of frost covers the void

Angels are weeping
Darkness embraces the earth
Shadows are creeping
Signs of the dreadful curse

Mankind ignores this prophecy
This prophecy
Dwells in a garden of illusion
This day concludes the odyssey
The odyssey Destroys the maze of delusion
Angels are weeping
