

Amatris, Visions

A tender dream gave me escort
Outside from time and space
Soothing silence held me covered
Though fright was born in me

Is it reality or illusion?
Do I perceive the tokens too late?
Nightmarish pictures, scary vision
Is this gift to be my fate?
My vision - Your descent
My vision - creepy end
My vision - I hear you cry
My vision - I see you die

Surrounded by blackness, surrounded by night
These dreams were brought to me
Distorted images, disturbed mind
I found you in this pictures

Why can I see the revelation?
Why can I see your descent?
Is it only a presentiment?
It's my destiny foreseeing the end
